Dear Parents

Snow Disruption

I apologise for the inconvenience that this week's weather has caused and I would like to thank you for your support over the last few days. We have endeavoured to keep in touch with you through Clarion Call which I believe, on the most part, has been successful. I sincerely hope that by Monday we should be over the worst of the weather and be in a position to carry on, business as usual, next week.

World Book Day

We were very disappointed not to have been able to celebrate World Book Day yesterday. We invite the children to dress up on Wednesday 7th March, as I am aware that considerable effort has been made towards the children's outfits. We have also managed to reschedule the Creative Movement workshops for next Wednesday.

It has been fantastic to see so many parents in school this week, sharing stories with the children and I thank you for your time and effort in this regard.

We would still be very happy to receive your book donations to support The Royal Free Hospital.

Extra-Curricular Science Club

I apologise if you had difficulty following the link to Little House of Science. If you are still interested, please register online at <https://www.littlehouseofscience.com/timetable> or call: 0800 092 1062

Stop and Drop

Please see below the rota for stop and drop next week. If you are unable to do the slot you have been assigned, we would appreciate it if you could endeavour to swap with another parent.

Class 7 News

Class 7 have been enjoying the snow this week. Daniel built a snowman and said, "He's only very tiny." Abbas was enjoying himself so much that he had to be encouraged to come inside to get warm and to listen to one of our favourite stories 'The Snowman.'

We have also been baking this week and to support our learning of the diagraph sound 'ch' we made chocolate chip cakes. We all had a stir and a chance to add ingredients. Alfie cracked an egg into the bowl and said, "This is so slimy!" When we added the vanilla extract Finlay commented, "It smells like vanilla ice cream." Before cooking we all added in some chocolate chips. We counted how many we each had before putting them into our yummy mixture.

The cakes were finally cooked and they tasted delicious!

I wish you all a lovely and warm weekend.

With best wishes
