Trevor Roberts Change to Admissions Process

I received news today, from Trevor Roberts, that the school is making some changes to their process and policy in terms of admissions. The changes will not impact children born in 2015 but if your child was born in 2016, there will now be two sets of assessments in February/March (for older children) and then later in the year in September/October (for younger children.) I have further details for any parents should you be considering Trevor Roberts as a future school.

Class 8 News

Class 8 have been world travellers and explored their new topic 'around the world'. We have been making passports, pictures of famous landmarks and learning about different habitats, we even know a song about continents. The next continent the children will be learning

Usborne Books

I hope the children enjoy sharing their new books with you over the weekend, that were ordered at the book fair. We are looking forward to sharing the new books we now have for School, including some additions to our reading scheme.

about Antarctica. They are very excited about this.

We decided to construct our own versions of iconic landmarks using modelling straws and matchsticks.

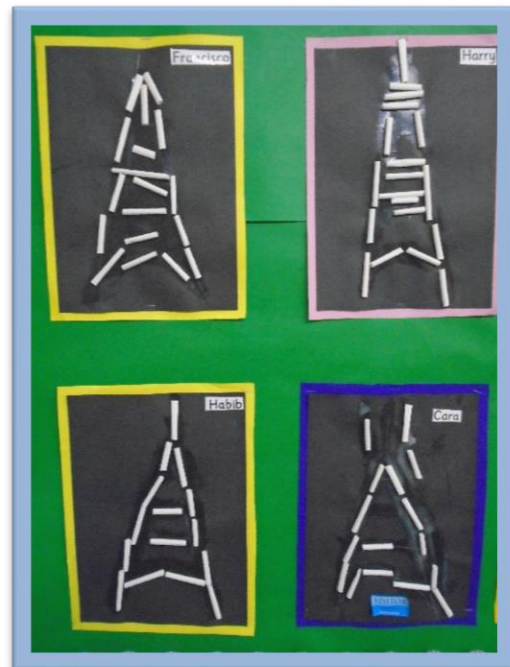

I wish everyone a lovely weekend.

With best wishes
